1 Presentation by June Parkinson.

Chairman of Hampshire Gardens Trust

June introduced the Group to the work of the Trust and outlined the areas of work in which they now particularly focussing their resources. In particular she outlined those areas of work which felt the Trust could be of use to the local authorities. Other subjects raised were

a. the possible role of a competition for developers to encourage a more creative treatment of open space areas in new residential areas. It could be sponsored by AGT with CABE involvement.

b the promotion of the Urban Parks and Green Spaces Forum which meets twice a year to encourage the sharing of experiences and skills.

c work on the preparation of Local Community Strategies. The HGT can provide assistance with the preparation of ideas and assistance with the implementation.

d Are the Trust on our weekly planning application consultations list ?

The presentation was followed by a short question and answer session. June gave to those present copies of the Trust's recent Journal, Newsheet and a "WHO, WHY and WHAT" leaflet.

2 Apologises

Vivian Fifield,Paul Best,Julian Davies,Mark Ellison.

3 Matters Arising

JD and ME have circulated to Members suggestions for the basis on which the Landscape Development checklist should be made available to Members (numbers and the copy format). Please respond as soon as possible. Some present have not received the original email so could ME resend it. There were one or two comments on the document and NW asked whether an item could be included on the agenda for the next meeting.

4 Landscape Institute/SW Branch

Lionel Fanshaw has been appointed as Chairman of the LI/SW Branch. NW has stepped down as Branch rep on the Executive but is still a member of it.

5 Tour of the Fareham Town Centre Sculpture Trail

The meeting concluded with a tour of the new pieces of sculpture put up at strategic places along the recently completed West Street and a visit to a town centre park.

Next Meeting

This will be in the Oakridge Centre, Basingstoke on September 29 2005 at 2pm. Please put a note in your diary now...
